

Director | China

Yan Li

Yan is a Director at Qualcomm Ventures in Beijing. She has contributed to the investment and management of China deals, including CooTek, Dolphin Browser, GFan, AccuVally, Eques, and Neobear.

Prior to joining Qualcomm, she worked for Moody's Investors Service's Corporate Finance division and Lehman Brothers' Investment Banking division in New York. Yan was a member of Lehman's Global Technology team, involved in both M&A advisory roles and debt and equity financings. She holds an M.B.A. from the Wharton School and a M.Eng. and S.B. from M.I.T.

Outside the Office:

Outside of the office, Yan enjoys hiking, swimming, traveling and spending time with family.